

Content

- 5 An Almost Impossible Issue
Katja Dorothea Buck and Mirjam van Reisen
- 8 Word by the Publisher
Martin Keiper
- 9 A Regime Enslaves its Population
Hans-Peter Hecking
- 21 The Need to End a Pervasive Culture of Impunity
Daniel R. Mekonnen
- 30 The Exodus of Eritrean Youth
Gaim Kibreab
- 43 “No Idea What You Mean”
Interviewed by Stefan Klein
- 48 Community Service or Forced Labour?
The Eritrean National Service
Nicole Hirt
- 58 A Country Without Youth
Stefan Klein
- 65 Faith, Politics and the Lack of Religious Freedom
Prof. Abdulkader Saleh Mohammad
- 74 The Deliberate and Systematic Destruction of the Eritrean
Orthodox Church
Fr. Athanasius H. Ghebre-Ab
- 82 The Missing Patriarch – A Church Whodunit
Katja Dorothea Buck
- 86 The Only Voice of the People
Interviewed by Katja Dorothea Buck
- 92 Religious Persecution in Eritrea and the Role of the European Union
Daniel R. Mekonnen and Mirjam van Reisen

- 98 The Very High Price of Press Freedom
Bjoern Tunbaeck
- 105 Radio Station Transmits from Paris to Eritrea
Katja Dorothea Buck
- 107 There Are Many Dangerous Routes to Europe
Leande Grezel
- 111 An Immense Needle's Eye of Sand
David Signer
- 115 UN Inquiry finds Crimes against Humanity in Eritrea
- 119 Redemption in Sinai – A Story of Slavery today
Mirjam van Reisen
- 126 No-one Cares About the Hostages in Sinai
Sanne Terlingen and Eva Schram
- 135 Lampedusa and Sinai – Linked by Tragedy
Dan Connell
- 141 Where There is a Will There is Always a Way
Selam Kidane
- 149 Three Women Who are Taking on the Regime
Martin Plaut
- 152 The Eritrean Diaspora: Between Compliance and Resistance
Nicole Hirt
- 160 The Limited Influence of the Diaspora
Antony Otieno Ong'ayo